

"Preserving the Past for the Future."

Patrons: Lord Rootes, T.D. Rootes, W.B. Rootes.

Rootes Archive Centre Trust

Certified Copy of a Factory Record: RJA/2007/0001

Prepared for:	Dr. Robert J. Allan, Shadewood Farm, 283 Chester Road, Grap-penhall, Warrington WA4 4AD
Make and Model:	Hillman Imp Caledonian
Chassis Sequence:	R1CBA series produced from Oct' 1974 to Jan' 1976
Total Production:	440,032 Imps were built at Linwood. Of these, approx. 2,000 were Caledonians.
Specification:	Two door saloon, home market, limited edition Caledonian Imp
Transmission Type:	4-speed manual, all synchromesh
Identification Numbers:	Car/ chassis: R1CBA 6L.110968; Engine: 110968, 875cc 4-cyl high compression ohc
Colour:	Exterior: Cherry Red (code PRP); Interior trim: Black vinyl and Tartan cloth seats
Approx. Date:	Manufacture: late 1975; Sales: Jan' 1976; Dispatch: Jan' 1976
Destination (Dealer):	The Plough Garage Ltd. Mansfield Road, Heanor, Derbys.
Registration Mark:	MRA 969P first registered on 29/1/1976 in Nottingham
First Owner:	not recorded
Original Options:	Underseal, engine lid lock, voltmeter, oil pressure gauge
Other Information:	Alternator, fuses and heated rear window as standard. Other op-tions above fitted by dealer. Car traded in and sold when one year old, still under warranty, to present owner.

This certificate was issued from the Rootes Archive Centre Trust on 23rd August, 2007.

Dr. R.J. Allan, Ph.D., Ch.Phys.

(Archivist and Trustee)

The Rootes Archive Centre Trust certifies that the details given above are compiled from an entry in the original factory records for the vehicle with the chassis number specified. This certificate does not constitute verification of the present condition of a specific vehicle. It also does not contribute to any claim of current ownership.

These are the details of the car as it left the assembly line. Cars were sometimes modified by the manufacturer after production and prior to shipment or by the dealers.

Rootes Archive Centre, Units G151-7, Cherwell Business Village, Southam Road, Banbury,
Oxon OX16 2SP

Registered Charity – No. 1108882

Rootes Archive Centre Trust

Car Details

Vehicle Information from Factory Records.

Make and Model:	Hillman Imp Caledonian
Chassis Sequence:	R1CBA series produced from Oct' 1974 to Jan' 1976
Total Production:	440,032 Imps were built at Linwood. Of these, approx. 2,000 were Caledonians.
Specification:	Two door saloon, home market, limited edition Caledonian Imp
Transmission Type:	4-speed manual, all synchromesh
Identification Numbers:	Car/ chassis: R1CBA 6L.110968; Engine: 110968, 875cc 4-cyl high compression ohc
Colour:	Exterior: Cherry Red (code PRP); Interior trim: Black vinyl and Tartan cloth seats
Approx. Date:	Manufacture: late 1975; Sales: Jan' 1976; Dispatch: Jan' 1976
Destination (Dealer):	The Plough Garage Ltd. Mansfield Road, Heanor, Derby.
Registration Mark:	MRA 969P first registered on 29/1/1976 in Nottingham
First Owner:	not recorded
Original Options:	Underseal, engine lid lock, voltmeter, oil pressure gauge
Other Information:	Alternator, fuses and heated rear window as standard. Other options above fitted by dealer. Car traded in and sold when one year old, still under warranty, to present owner.

This information was prepared for Robert J. Allan – August 2007.

Information issued by Dr. R.J. Allan, Ph.D., Ch.Phys. (Archivist and Trustee, Rootes Archive Centre Trust).

"Preserving the Past for the Future."

Registered Charity – No. 1108882

Patrons: Lord Rootes, T.D. Rootes, W.B. Rootes.

The Rootes Archive Centre Trust certifies that the details given above are compiled from an entry in the original factory records for the vehicle with the chassis number specified and show details of it as it left the assembly line.